

NJ-ATSA HALF DAY TRAINING

Friday, January 11, 2019

Positive Psychology and the Good Lives Model

Translating Strengths Based Approaches to the Treatment and Assessment of Those who have Committed Sex Crimes

Elizabeth L. Jeglic Ph.D.

Middlesex Fire Academy
1001 Fire Academy Dr, Sayreville, NJ 08872.

8:30am – 12:00 noon (registration 8:30am - 9:00am)

Training Goals and Objectives

- Identify current research and theory of behavior change as it related to positive approaches including the Good Lives Model
- Apply strengths based theoretical models for understanding behavior change
- Integrate strengths based approaches into existing treatment practices of those who have committed sexual crimes
- Understand and apply the latest research on integrating strengths based approaches into risk assessment for those who have committed sexual crimes
- Discuss how strengths based approaches can lead to decreases in risk and a better quality of life for those who have committed a sexual offense.

Fees

Meetings are free for members and $5 for non-members
$10 fee for Psychology CE credits (3 clinical hours)

Pre-registration not required for this event

Certificate of attendance available upon request

Complaints and/or grievances can be shared in writing on the evaluation form distributed toward the end of the day. Attendees can also approach the registration table to share complaints and/or grievances. Furthermore, complaints and/or grievances can be forwarded to NJATSA c/o Dr. Martin Krupnick, 75 West Main Street, Freehold, NJ 07728.

To request accommodations for disabilities, please contact the Middlesex County Fire Academy, 1001 Fire Academy Dr., Sayreville, NJ, (732) 727-0008