

NJ ATSA Presents

The 11th annual Barbara Frank Award

Barbara Frank was a Union County Juvenile Probation Officer for over 25 years and the first with a sex offender specific caseload. She worked with juvenile probationers until her untimely death on February 28, 2006 and always went the extra mile for the youth on her caseload and their families. Barbara was greatly admired by the youth she supervised, their parents/guardians and her colleagues for her abiding dedication and concern.
